Ellen has enjoyed a very successful real estate career for over 20 years and now her passion is to develop other agents. Ellen has spent the last 10 years training and speaking to professionals from coast to coast. She speaks to audiences including real estate agents and other related businesses. She regularly attends classes and conventions as a student to continually glean new information to share. Her programs are constantly changing with the basics staying the same throughout. It has been said that Practices and Principles is the plate and Ellen is the meat and potatoes.
